Andover Senior Center has scheduled a "Christmas in July" Craft Fair for July 29th & 30th. If this is as successful as our December craft fair, it may become an annual event. We will be promoting this through our newsletter, social media, flyers, and word of mouth. We hope you will share this information with your family and friends.

The Activity room of the Center will be utilized for this event. We will be able to accommodate 16 vendors tables. Table rental will be $15, and there is a 10% fee on all sales. Vendors may set up on Thursday, July 28th, from 4-7pm. The Fair hours will be Friday from 9-5 and Saturday, 9-3. Vendors are invited to eat lunch at the Center, served at 11:30 on Friday, for a suggested donation of $5. Food will also be available for purchase on Saturday. When filling out your entry form, please indicate if you will be eating lunch at the Center on Friday so our cooks will be prepared.

Vendors will not need to be present during the Fair hours, however, all merchandise should be clearly marked with the price and the booth number. All merchandise will be checked out at a specified location. Proceeds will be available for pickup on Monday, August 1st.

Please bring your completed entry form to the Center, or mail it to 410 N. Lioba Dr, Andover, 67002, with your entry fee, as soon as possible. Remember, there will be a limit of 16 tables!

90+ and still going strong

HONORARY MEMBER - RUTH HELENA

Ruth Ella Warne was borne on April 19, 1928 south of Wichita, KS on seven acres of land beside the Arkansas River. She was sixth of seven children, with three brothers and three sisters. Ruth met Melvin Helena at a dance club and dated only six months before marrying in 1948.

They moved to Andover in April, 1952 and she is still in the same house. They raised three boys and one girl, and she now has eleven grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild! Together they owned and operated the Helena Nursery until it closed in 2011. They donated their remaining stock to the zoo and Plant Kingdom. Ruth babysit for about 100 children in this area and still keeps in touch with many of them and their families.

Ruth and Melvin joined the Andover Senior Center in 1997 and she enjoyed taking care of all the plants here as well as exercising with her good friend, Tess Sanborn. She and Melvin were married for 62 years and 10 months when he passed away on December 22, 2010.

Although her eyesight and hearing difficulties prevent her from walking over to the senior center now, she continues to maintain her membership and attends most of our fundraisers with her son Jim. Thank you for your membership and dedication to the Andover Senior Center, Ruth, and we look forward to seeing you any time you can come by.
