Good Grief.. does that preacher fella think I came to church to
LIP READ his sorry sermons?

The Senility Prayer

Grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked anyway, the good fortune to run
into the ones I do,
and the eyesight
to tell the difference.

Elder Abuse

Abuse can happen to anyone—no matter the person's age, sex, race, religion, or ethnic or cultural background. Each year, hundreds of thousands of adults over the age of 60 are abused, neglected, or financially exploited. This is called elder abuse.

Abuse can happen in many places, including the older person's home, a family member's house, an assisted living facility, or a nursing home.

Types of Abuse:

Physical Abuse happens when someone causes bodily harm by hitting, pushing, or slapping.

Emotional Abuse, sometimes called psychological abuse, can include a caregiver saying hurtful words, yelling, threatening, or repeatedly ignoring the older person. Keeping that person from seeing close friends and relatives is another form of emotional abuse.

Neglect occurs when the caregiver does not try to respond to the older person's needs.

Abandonment is leaving a senior alone without planning for his or her care.

Sexual abuse involves a caregiver forcing an older adult to watch or be part of sexual acts.

Who Is Being Abused?

Most victims of abuse are women, but some are men. Likely targets are older people who have no family or friends nearby and people with disabilities, memory problems, or dementia.

Abuse can happen to any older person, but often affects those who depend on others for help with activities of everyday life—including bathing, dressing, and taking medicine. People who are frail may appear to be easy victims.

Thank You

. for your support.

Our Christmas dinner was such a success thanks to Victoria Falls and their wonderful staff for providing us with such a delicious meal. A big shout out to all our volunteers who helped us set up.

Special thanks as well to Diane Boone and her great decorating skills, which made our center look so beautiful.

"I suppose you know you've been standing there for over an hour and the toaster's not plugged in."

You're Getting Older If You Can Remember...

Being sent to the drugstore to test vacuum tubes for the TV or radio.

When Kool-Aid was the only other drink for kids, other than milk and soda pop.

When boys couldn't wear anything but leather shoes to school.

When it took five minutes for the TV to warm up.

When all your friends got their hair cut at the kitchen table.

When nearly everyone's mom was at home when the kids got there.

When nobody owned a pure-bred dog.

When a dime was a decent allowance, and a quarter a huge bonus.

When you'd reach into a muddy gutter for a penny.

When girls neither dated nor kissed until late high school, if then.

When your mom wore nylons that came in two pieces.

When all your teachers wore either neckties or had their hair done, every day.

"The Year" By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

What can be said in New Year rhymes,
That's not been said a thousand times?

The new years come, the old years go,
We know we dream, we dream we know.

We rise up laughing with the light,
We lie down weeping with the night.

We hug the world until it stings,
We curse it then and sigh for wings.

We live, we love, we woo, we wed,
We wreath our brides, we sheet our dead.

We laugh, we weep, we hope, we fear,
And that's the burden of the year.
