The beauty of kindness is that you may never fully understand the storm it calmed in somebody else. Your light, even if it flickered for a second, might have been the only warmth they felt that day. Keep giving, without needing to be seen. The heart that receives it will remember-even if the world doesn't.

If you see someone falling behind, walk beside them. If you see someone being ignored, find a way to include them. If someone has been knocked down, lift them up. Always remind people of their worth. One small act could mean the world to them.
